EVENTS DETAILS

- Le vie delle Foto is a collective photographic exhibition consisting of many individual exhibitions. Each photographer can choose his/her own topic and the picture size.
- After the registration, the photographers will be asked to send their pictures in low resolution to be reviewed by the organization.
- Cost of the registration is 125.00 Euros and includes the events organization and the locations assignment. Additional costs for the installation will be applied separately. With the registration fee, the photographer will be automatically inserted in the exhibition catalog and will receive a copy and with a welcome bag and a variety of sponsor swag items.
- The printing is not included in the registration fee, but there will be many special offer and discounts available. The affiliated printing shops will be contacted after registration.
- The pictures will remain property of the photographers as per copyright laws, with a release of rights for the virtual catalog. If interested, the photographers will have the possibility to sell their pictures through the organization.
- How to participate: Fill out the registration form and send it to info@leviedellefoto.it<mailto:info@leviedellefoto.it>. The organization will contact you within 10 days. If this doesn't happen, please contact the Organization's phone number: 3452911405. The event organizer will take care of your registration process. Once your application is accepted and the payment completed, you'll receive further instructions regarding the event and your participation.
- You have the possibility to donate one of your pictures for a charity sale. The money will be devolved to a different association. Until today, Le vie delle foto donated 17.000 Euros to many different charity associations around the world.
